

North American Meat Institute Honors OSI President and COO David McDonald

Aurora, IL, USA, February 12, 2019 – David McDonald, president and chief operating officer of OSI Group, received the E. Floyd Forbes Award today from the North American Meat Institute (NAMI). Mr. McDonald was first elected to the board of the Meat Institute in 2003 where he served many consecutive board terms. He went on to hold other important Executive Committee positions within the organization beginning in 2012.

This award was specifically presented for his service as the Meat Institute’s chairman during its organizational merger and the Meat Institute’s inaugural year of 2015. The award is named for E. Floyd Forbes, who in 1946, guided the formation of the Western States Meat Packers Association, which later became the National Meat Association, a predecessor organization to NAMI.
